Planners veto third screen

Syufy Enterprises played to a packed house at the Planning Commission meeting Monday night.

Unfortunately for Syufy spokesman Michael di Leonardi, the house did not appreciate his performance.

Instead, they reserved their applause for several of their spokesmen, including Fred Sahadi, developer of a mobile park adjacent to land owned by Syufy in the McGlincey Neighborhood District under consideration for future land use.

Attorney di Leonardi's client proposed that a parcel of land north of his existing two-screen theater should be considered for use as a third screen.

His arguments that traffic access was going to be alleviated by acquisition of a right-of-way allowing a 45 foot road to the south in no way moved the commission who had agreed last July to allow no change from the high density zoning which was designated when the property was annexed to the City of Campbell.

The matter was referred again to the Planning Commission from the Council because theater owners had requested an opportunity to present a detailed traffic pattern.

Individual commissioners also received applause from the audience as they voiced their own opposition to a third screen. Norman Paul, operator of two local movie theaters, abstained from discussion and voting.

Mobile home park spokesmen included Ray Born, 95 La Paz, who pointed out that the recreational facilities of the park closed at 10 p.m. because they did not want to disturb nearby park residents.

Other residents complained of noise, debris and intrusion into their park by patrons of the existing theaters.

Di Leonardi and Sahadi debated briefly as to why the parcel under question was taken into the city with a high density zoning, rather than the industrial use needed for a drive-in theater.

Commissioner Thayer Lyons, in expressing his disapproval of an additional theater, stated that the Planning Commission as a body had never wanted a drive-in theater in the first place and that they did not want the second screen and definitely didn't want a third.

Commissioner Merrill Grim complimented the Syufy attorney in complying with all the Planning Commission requests for traffic survey and additional egress routes.

Earlier, Anthony Sota, 2222 Central Park Dr., a spokesman for a homeowner group bordering the south side of the drive-in, asked the commission to make sure the right-of-way acquired by Syufy for access to the theater be implemented should they approve a change in the land use for an additional theater.

The future land use will come up for public hearing at the City Council meeting next Monday.

In other actions, the Commission continued discussion for an application for architectural approval of a commercial complex and service station at 135 and 220 E. Hamilton for Anthony Morici.

Also continued was architectural approval for R. L. Bruntz for an additional 8-unit apartment building at 1305 and 1319 W. Campbell Ave.

Approval was given Leo Freschi for a mobile home park plan and landscape plan for lands bordering the Los Gatos creek and for a commer-

FOR LACK OF FUNDS--The Parks and Recreation Commission is recommending to the City Council that a maximum of $2,000 be allocated for completion of the Campbell-Moreland Pony League clubhouse building at Rincon Park. The building stands half completed after the Pony League depleted its financial resources and needs an estimated $2,000 to purchase steel doors, windows, electrical and plumbing materials.

Wrinkled Prune Annex converts for rehearsal

The three-story former Sunsweet Growers warehouse on Central Ave., now owned by Stanley Becker, has been resounding to a different kind of sound during the last few months as the Saratoga Drama group invaded the empty building to practice for their forthcoming production of "Mame".

The 85,000 square foot structure even boasts a new name these days, "The Wrinkled Prune Annex", to go along with its new character.

Becker, who portrays the role of Babcock in the musical "Mame", offered his warehouse for use as a rehearsal hall when he found that the group needed rehearsal space.

Becker originally bought the warehouse for use in his canned foods business, but later decided to turn it into a unique entertainment center. Becker visualizes that the first of the proposed cafes and restaurants planned for the warehouse will open in about two months, and will be called "The Prune Pit". This will be a beer and wine cellar and

LOTS OF SPACE--Keith Robison and Betsy Shuey, cast members of the musical "Mame", find the catwalks of the empty Wrinkled Prune Annex a great place to rehearse.

Lengthy agenda faces council; loop, topless

Campbell City Council faces a long evening of public hearings, text amendments, appeals, awarding of bids, votes on ordinances, department reports, use permits and commission and advisory committee recommendations when they convene Monday night.

Two items which promise to weigh heavy on the agenda are the public hearing on the north loop plan line which would cut a new street 295 feet north of Campbell Ave., and an "urgency" ordinance to license nude and semi-nude entertainment.

A third item, which brought out a large audience at last Monday's Planning Commission meeting, is a plan adoption for the area known as Study Area No. 2 of the McGlincey Neighborhood District.

The Council will also hear an appeal by Ad-Art Co. for the Round House Liquors who were denied a sign change request by the Planning Commission. A second appeal by Douglas Oil Co. for a use permit on Hamilton and Marathon Dr. is being continued.

Bids will be awarded for three new police cars and other bids will be called for for additional equipment for the public works department.

A request for crossing guards from residents in the area of San Tomas and Budd and another at Hacienda and Virginia will be considered.

Staff recommendations will be made on a request from Mission-Yellow Cab for a rate increase.

The design of the Rincon Ave. overcrossing which was proposed by the county public works department will be discussed.

City Manager Bob Stephens will report on a tree planting study for the area in front of Campbell Shopping Center. An application to continue operation of a billiard parlor will be made by Cosmo Perotta.

Stephens and architect Bill Hedley will report the progress of the plans for the proposed City Hall, primarily financial and architectural factors.

Stephens will also comment on the recommendations made to the city by the Congress for Community Progress held last February.

A resolution is before the Council to abate a shack located at 1610 Dell Ave. which has been noted as a hangout for transients.

Land use near park adopted

Land uses for property surrounding Rincon Park was a lengthy item on the agenda of the city's planning commissioners Monday night.

Specific recommendations were made by City Planner Arthur Kee as to future use of eight areas contained within the city's "Specific Area No. 1 of the General Plan of the City of Campbell".

One area bordering the San Tomas Expressway running between Campbell and Rincon drew comments from two members of the audience.

Don Hebard, chairman of the Parks and Recreation Commission, requested that the parcel be considered for low density and expressed the hope that the bordering Seventh Day Adventist School might someday acquire the property.

Lowell Grattan, owner of the property in question, asked the commission to consider allowing another use for that portion of the property fronting on Campbell Ave. and indicated that he had talked with the school officials about selling them the rear portion to build a new church.

However, the commission agreed to leave the property designated as park, even though the city staff had recommended medium density. Other areas considered were properties which are privately owned, including property on Rincon presently having a use permit for a private swim club, residential lands fronting on Budd Ave. and a fire station site recently acquired by the city on Campbell Ave.

Hebard was called upon by the commission several times to voice his approval or disapproval of various staff recommendations.

Following the public hearing, Commissioner Thayer Lyons challenged a previous statement by Hebard that

WHO DETERMINES what is adequate for city services?

REGISTERED VOTERS periodically express themselves, be it an election for City Councilman or an issue authorizing the expenditure of money.

During the interim period between these elections, however, an elected official must make many decisions which directly affect City residents.

What criteria, if any, does a City official use then to determine what is best for the most.

Annually, a City Council must adopt an operating budget for a fiscal year which begins July 1 and concludes on the following June 30.

The adopted budget establishes the programs, policies, and level of service which are to be executed by the City administration and City employees during the one-year period.

I have often been asked the question - Who determines what level of service is adequate?

DOES THE POLICE Chief establish the level of services for law enforcement and traffic control in the City on the basis of his professional know-how and actual experience?

Do citizen groups or individuals, representing the majority of Campbellites, influence or dictate what level of service is provided by our Fire Department?

Does the City Manager determine the recommended level of services according to the amount of money the City has available for operations or for other reasons relating to good administrative practice?

ACTUALLY, all of the above criteria serve to give the City Council some direction to the level of service for City operations determined at the annual budget hearings.

Department heads who are best qualified in their respective municipal fields of operation submit the original requests for the level of service they deem essential.

The City Manager and Finance Director then analyze and evaluate the total requests in view of the total monies available for operations. Throughout the year, citizens and organizations express their praise or criticism of City services to the City Council and/or City staff.

The City Council is alerted to citizen reaction, both good and bad. A lack of citizen reaction may be interpreted as citizen satisfaction with the present level of service.

IT IS APPARENT, THEREfore, that a number of factors directly affect the City Council's final decision on what level of City service is adequate for a one-year period by their adoption of a final budget.

We trust that the present level of service for Police, Fire, Streets, Planning, Building and the overall administration of City operations is acceptable to the majority of taxpayers and residents of Camp-

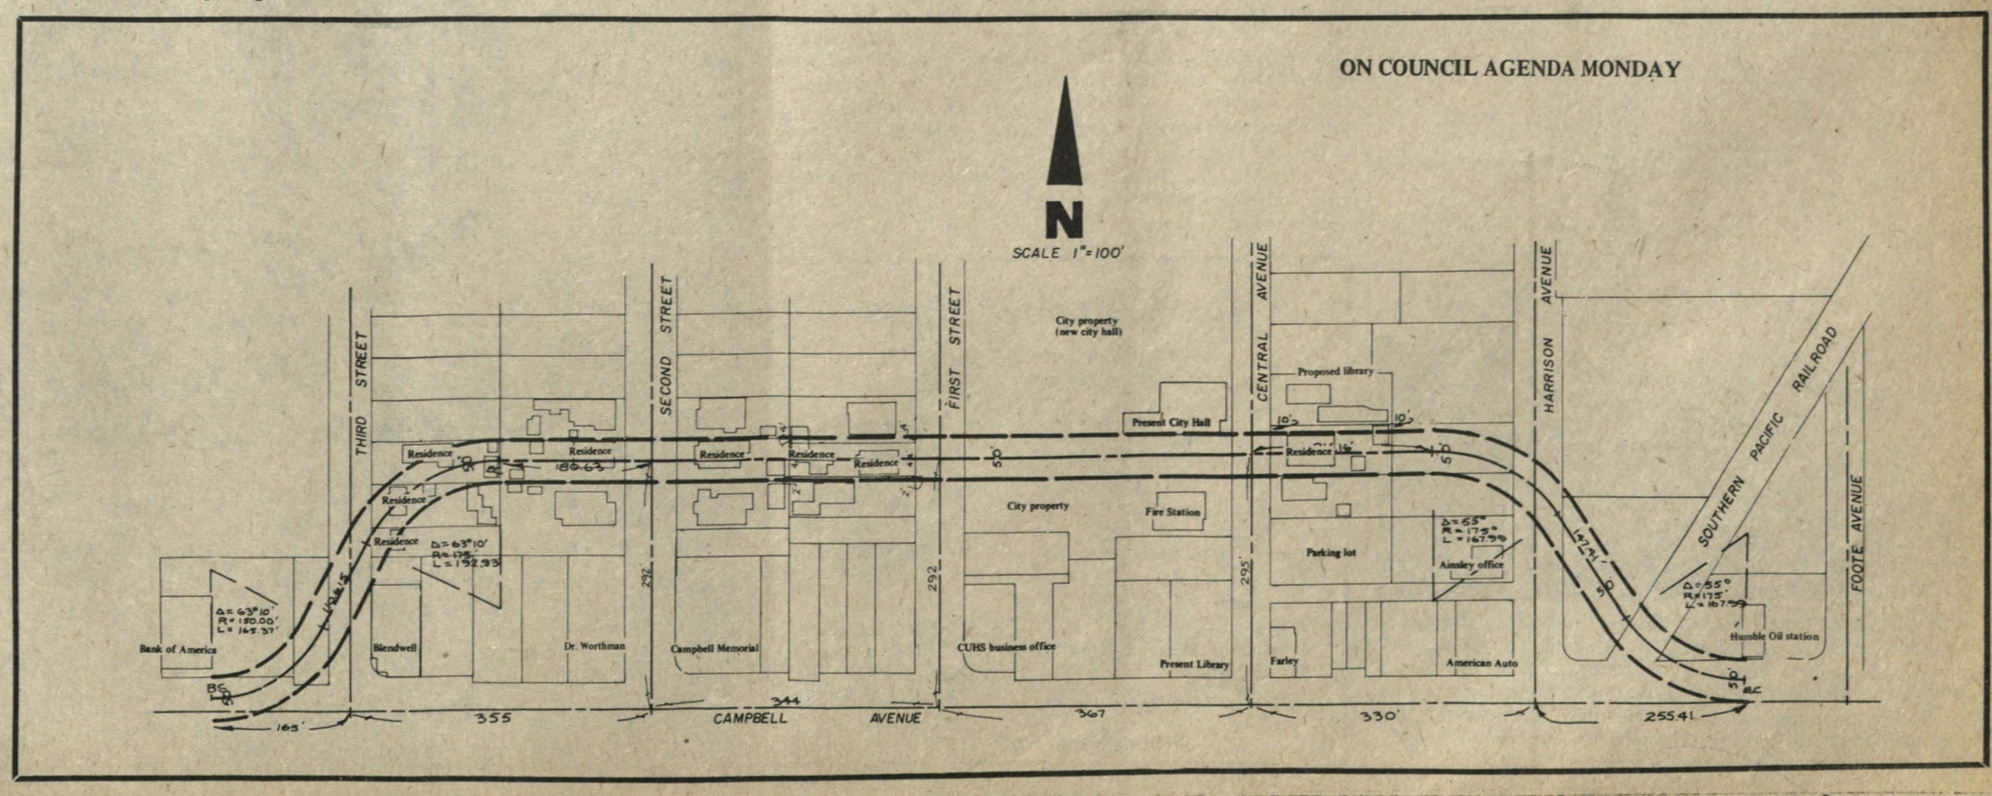
ON COUNCIL AGENDA MONDAY



Editorial

The Truth Generally Lies Under the Surface

The true facts about anything are seldom pure and never simple. Facts often are deeply hidden, like the seven-eighths of an iceberg which always lie under water.

When your newspaper reporter says to the mayor, or the school superintendent, or the chief of police, "May I ask you a question or two?" he is really "diving" for facts. He hopes to bring to the light of day other related names, figures, or relationships which will tell his readers a fuller story.

Good newspapers, good newspapermen constantly dive, dig, and probe beneath the appearances of things to their deeper, often hidden meanings and connections.

There are all kinds of newspapers and all kinds of newspapermen. Nobody ever claimed they were all perfect. But one thing is certain: No other agency, institution, or group of people of any kind is engaged in digging out and publishing important facts about our public life.

That's the job of a free and unlicensed press. This newspaper would like you to remember that during National Newspaper Week, October 5 - 11.

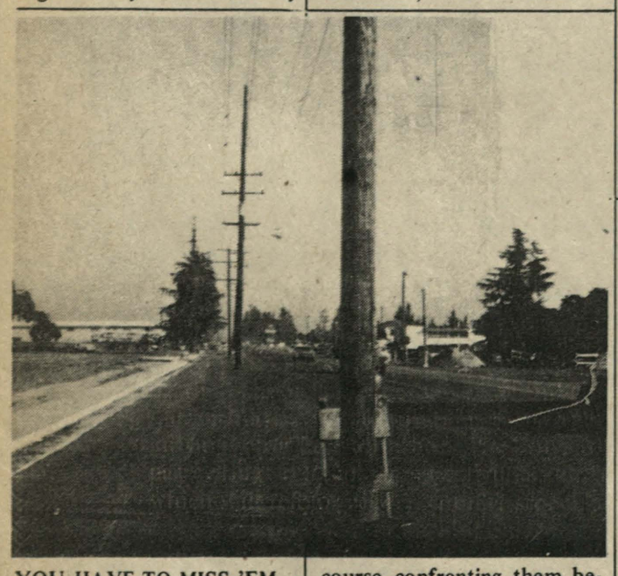
STREET PROJECT---Work is well under way in the improving of Sunnyside and Kennedy avenues with street improvement bond money voted in October, 1967. Under a unique formula, the city foots the tab for two-thirds of the cost of the street improvements while the residents pick up the tab for one-third. The project will cost $149,955 with the residents paying $38,309.05 of that amount and the city $102,646.14 for its share. The above photo shows workmen removing trees.



YOU HAVE TO MISS 'EM--Bascom Ave. is in the throes of being widened and improved...eventually the utility poles will go underground... But until they do, motorists will have sort of an obstacle course confronting them between Campbell Ave. and Ridgeley Dr., as the above photo illustrates. They will be adequately barricaded, city officials claim. We all will soon know.

WHAT ARE SOME OF the current day-to-day problems relating to City services and programs? A capsule view of these follow.

TRAFFIC PROBLEMS

Campbell is the hub of a number of major traffic carriers for both through and local traffic. The City Police Department's Traffic Patrol and the Traffic Engineering Division of the Public Works Department are challenged almost daily with traffic problems and projects to resolve them.

Hamilton Avenue between Bascom and Highway 17 is the heaviest traveled non-freeway street in Santa Clara County--almost 50,000 cars per day. Innovations in traffic signals and traffic channelization with pavement striping have given some temporary solutions to the increase in traffic.

Major and minor street widening and improvement projects are in process as gas tax and bond funds become available for specific projects.

CIVIC CENTER COMPLEX

The electorate of Campbell approved in October, 1967, a bond issue for a Civic Center Complex which will include a City Hall and a new library building. The City has acquired the land for the new City Hall.

The seven parcels required for the library site are currently in the negotiation stages. It is hoped they will be acquired by January 1, 1970.

The architect has received preliminary approval from the City Council on the design and site plan for the City Hall.

It is anticipated that construction will begin on both the City Hall and library by April 1, 1970. With the critical housing shortage in Santa Clara County, the City is working closely with property owners and tenants who live in houses which must be acquired and demolished for the library site.

The relocation of these individuals and families into adequate housing is of primary importance to the City.

COOPERATIVE SERVICES WITH NEIGHBORING CITIES

Recent studies have indicated the feasibility of providing cooperative or contract services between the cities of Campbell, Los Gatos and Saratoga for law enforcement.

The goal of such a program is to provide a higher level of service at less cost to the cities involved without either city losing its identity or authority vested with local government as provided by State law.

The administrative staffs of the three cities are also investigating the feasibility of cooperative purchasing, joint use of public works equipment and other operational services which one city could provide at cost to the other.

DOGS, GARBAGE AND TREES

No urban area can escape the day-to-day problems inherent with dogs, garbage and trees. Each in its own right under various conditions and circumstances can be an irritant among individuals and/or an entire neighborhood with "guess who" in the middle.

It requires patience and usually many man-hours to resolve a problem, which many times, only time alone can resolve.

The new regulation of no backyard burning, effective January 1, 1970, may require new local legislation to meet the increase in refuse resulting from this regulation imposed by the Bay Area Pollution Control District.

CONCLUSION

The opportunity to talk to, instead of being talked about, in The Campbell Press is a rare but welcome opportunity for this public servant. The statements made earlier in this article are in capsule form. It would be easier to write a 100 page essay about the city and its problems.

The Campbell Press Editor and Publisher George Vierhus shares the same problems we do as City officials -- not enough time, space or money to do the job as we would like to see it done.

Two Advisory commissions are making recommendations to the city. The Parks and Recreation Commission is requesting the City allocate $2000 to the Campbell-Moreland Pony League for completion of their work at the Rincon Park.

The Citizens for Beautification are making two requests to the city. The first is that the city consider twice-weekly refuse pickup. The second is that the city develop legislation which will assure maintenance of landscaping required initially for development in commercial and industrial areas.

high density uses and parks were not compatible.

Hebard responded that he felt that the Rincon Park was a "community park" as opposed to a neighborhood park and he was concerned with keeping the "open space" around it.

Although some properties had zoning which allows apartment building, the commissioners voted these be designated for "low" density as a guide to future use.

The commission "prezoned" properties proposed to be annexed to the City of Campbell known as McGlincey 1969-6 to an R-3-S use.

Letters to the Editor

ED. NOTE: The following letter, distributed to all West Valley College students from Wallace W. Hall, college president, is printed in The Campbell Press in order that Campbell residents may see how the college administration is trying to alleviate the parking problem created by the WV college students.

September 24, 1969
Students at West Valley College:

I am certain you are aware that there are over 9500 students enrolled in the day and extended classes maintained at West Valley College. This large number has taxed severely the on-street parking facilities available for everyone, -student and non-student- in the downtown Campbell area adjacent to and near the college.

As more and more students enroll at West Valley College, a greater and greater burden is placed upon the Campbell city officials, the downtown merchants, and the residents on the streets near the college because of student parking in these areas.

The merchants find that potential customers are driven away because of lack of facilities; the residents experience no parking spaces available for friends and acquaintances who would visit them; and the city officials find added responsibilities. Thus, a growing feeling of frustration and resentment toward the college and its students is generated among some of the people of Campbell.

This feeling can be minimized if the West Valley College students will considerately park on the parking lot which the college has provided--at substantial expense to the district--for student parking between Campbell and Rincon Avenues.

This area has never been fully utilized by our students, a fact which the affected Campbell citizens find difficult to understand when the college provides unlimited parking IN LIEU of the time limits imposed upon street parking.

Throughout the five years West Valley College has been located in Campbell, we have received genuine and complete cooperation from the city and our neighbors, both residents and merchants. It has been a happy relationship which certainly is to our mutual advantage to maintain.

This we can do, if as far as possible our students will: (1) double up in cars coming to the campus so that the need for parking spaces will be reduced; (2) park on the college's parking lot off Rincon Avenue; and (3) use public transportation where available.

We have also received complaints from the people residing on Allendale Ave. and Harleigh Dr. in Saratoga, over students parking on those two streets right adjacent to our Saratoga Campus parking area. May we strongly urge you not to park on either Allendale Ave. or Harleigh Dr. We have ample parking space for all on the Saratoga Campus.

Our students have always demonstrated a thoughtful consideration of others. I am confident that there will be no exception on this occasion. For your assistance in locating the Rincon parking lot, there is a map on the reverse side of this page.

Very sincerely yours,
Wallace W. Hall
President

Congregational Church scene of Mork-Acken wedding

MR. AND MRS. CHARLES MORK

The Congregational Church of Campbell was the setting for the recent wedding ceremony uniting Miss Frances Mae Acken and Charles Louis Mork. The beautiful double ring ceremony was planned by Fran with the help of the Rev. Anthony Wayne Myers who read the marriage vows and served communion to the young couple.

For her wedding day Fran chose a traditional style gown of Alencon lace with long sleeves and a bouffant four-tiered skirt ending in a peacock cathedral length train. Her elbow length, lace edged veil was held in place with a pearl and crystal crown used by her sister Joann for her wedding, and she wore a white gold chain from which was suspended a heart of pearls, her gift from Chuck. Fran carried a teardrop shaped bouquet of white roses and miniature carnations accented with soft orange velvet ribbons and centered with a removable orchid corsage.

Floor length gowns of soft orange miramist accented with matching soft orange velvet back streamers were worn by the attendents who all carried a single white rose with greens and matching orange velvet streamers. Stephanie Rae Rose attended her friend as maid of honor with the bridesmaids roles being carried out by Kay Jenkinson, Joann Riopel, sisters of the bride; Mrs. Richard Del Mutolo, sister of the groom and Dianne Crewse and Carol Benbow.

Mrs. Robert Ketchell, friend of the bride since her junior choir days in the church, played the organ selections while Lawrence McCommas, Campbell High School District vocal teacher who has had both Fran and Chuck as students, sang the traditional solos.

The new Mrs. Mork is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Acken, 1968 Palo Santo Drive. She is a Campbell High School graduate where she was active as a Pirette, in the a cappella choir and in many of the school musicals. Fran has also been an active member of the Congregational Church choir and is well-known for her lovely soprano voice. She attended San Jose State College where she was majoring in music before her marriage.

For her daughters wedding Mrs. Acken wore a dress of pink georgette with matching accessories accented with a white orchid corsage.

Charles is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Hjalmer Mork of 104 La Vonne Drive and is also a Campbell High School graduate where he was active in the a cappella choir and musicals.

Chuck chose his brother, William, to be his best man. Guests were ushered to their seats by Dennis Marshall, Robert Moe, Richard Del Mutolo, Garcy Acken and Michael Acken. Mrs. Mork wore a turquoise chiffon ensemble with a white orchid corsage for the occasion.

Following the ceremony the newly-weds greeted their guests in the Fireside room of the church which was decorated with the bridal colors of soft orange and white. A three-tiered chocolate wedding cake was cut and served with orange sherbet punch and coffee.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Mork have established their first home in Victorville where Chuck is stationed at George Air Force Base and Fran is advisor to the High Dessert Lassies Drill Team of the Victor Valley High School.

Following the wedding reception a buffet dinner was served in the Acken home for members of the wedding party, relatives and out-of-town guests.

Westmont Whirl

By Linda Hall

Our fall semester class officers are:

SENIORS – Micky Blank, president; Karl Rohrkemper, vice-president; Denice McCurdy, secretary; Lynnette Pietrobono, treasurer.

JUNIORS –Brian Beers, president; Louie Hernandez, vice-president; Jackie Butler, secretary; Larry Blickman, treasurer.

FRESHMEN -- Sherrie Baker, president; Steve Sutton, vice-president; Linda Lucas, secretary, and Nichele Newbury, treasurer.

Westmont is host to three foreign exchange students this year. Inaki Arredondo from Bilbao, Spain is staying with Denise Fredricks' family. According to Inaki, San Jose seems "...very spread out." Straight from Copenhagen, Denmark comes Peter Utzon who is staying with Dan Jones and his family. Peter enjoys soccer and can't figure out why football is so named, when the foot is not often used.

"It's warmer here in California," remarks Franklin Ling from Hamberg, Germany. He is the house guest of Bob Ellingson's family.

Placing second in the Lynnbrook Invitational last Friday, Varsity Cross-country opened their season with a good running start. Junior Randy Carleson led the squad by capturing second place. Other Warriors placing were: sophomore Fred Washer, junior Louie Hernandez, senior Dan Strobell, junior Bill Krause, junior Mike Flack.

Drum Major Kris Stephens will really control our Warrior marching band this year. Instead of the conventional baton, he uses a mace.

Senior Cliff Mohr was appointed a member of the Los Gatos City Recreation Commission, being the first non-adult member to join.

Campbell Corners

By Cindy Harris

Last Thursday and Friday were two victorious days for Campbell as our football teams ran over Del Mar High. On Thursday the frosh-soph drowned the Dons, 22 to 8. On Friday the big varsity dumped the Dons, 26 to 0.

This year something new has been added to promote the spirit and enthusiasm of the varsity players. Mr. Ward Pinther, owner of Straw Hat Pizza on Campbell Ave., is giving a free pizza to the player that the coaches choose as "Player of the Week".

David Norris McLain has been chosen Player of the Week for his outstanding performance as split-end for Campbell during the game against Del Mar. Each week a new player will be named.

Eyes were on the Pirettes as they did their routine to Campbell's fight song during Friday's game. The Pirettes are Campbell's drill team and its members include Mary Dinsmore, Teresa Vance, Gail Newton, Carol Kocjan, Debbie Austin, Lark Benbow, Kathy Caton, Kathy Kilduff, Lisa Congdon, Sandy Ellis, Monica Alvarez, Sandy Cebrian, Sindy McKay and the head, Kris Nunes.

The first edition of the Campus Echo, our school paper, was put out Friday by the senior journalism class. This year's editors and reporters are Ken Chance, Diana Smith, Kathy Runner, Sharon Wungluck, Monica Alvarez, Robyn Justo, Chuck Leishman, Wally Owens, Eileen Wammock and Renee Nooteboom.

The Campus Echo is published every two weeks by the senior class under the supervision of Miss Cassandra Taul, journalism teacher at Campbell.

Remember: This Friday Campbell varsity rivals Saratoga on the Campbell turf. Be there!

DEBBIE UNDERWOOD

The annual PTA "Back to School Night" is being held tonight at 7 p.m. This is the first program of the 1969-70 school year.

Parents will attend a brief meeting which introduces the student council, new faculty members and the PTA executive board. Following this meeting, the parents then proceed to follow their son's or daughter's schedules and visit each of their classes for ten minutes. This gives them the opportunity to meet the teachers and see how the classes are run. Coffee and refreshments will be served following the class tours.

A dance put on by the Associated Student Body is going to be held in the Camden cafetorium this Friday from 8-11 p.m. Admission will be 50¢ with an ASB card, $1.50 without.

Freshmen rule in ASB card sales with an outstanding 84% card holders. Seniors take over the number two spot with an all-time high of 75%. Occupying third place with a close 73% are the sophomores, and juniors remain on the bottom with 66%. In all, the student body card sales were very successful this year.

The Boys' P. E. Department, along with the Letterman's Club and the Camden Booster Club, is sponsoring a Blue Chip stamp book drive in order to purchase a weight machine. Mr. Bill Yonge, department head, says 1200 books are needed to make their goal. Any interested boys (or girls!) with filled Blue Chip stamp books are encouraged to donate them for this good cause.

Camden Cougars proved their mightiness by crushing the Branham Bruins 12-0 in the league opener last Friday. Rick Soulsby squeezed through the Bruin line to make the first touchdown in the second quarter. In the third quarter, a 60-yard pass from Gary Harris to Steve Vittone put the Cougars over the goal posts and into the victory homestretch with the final score of 12-0.

Real estate investment class opens four week seminar Oct. 15

Small investors will have a chance to learn both the major pitfalls and the benefits of real estate ventures when a four-week seminar on "Real Estate Investments" begins Oct. 15 at Los Gatos High School under the auspices of West Valley College.

The course, which will run four consecutive Wednesday evenings, will feature expert speakers who will deliver short talks and then answer questions of small investors.

Questions to be answered include: What are the basic rules of a good investment? What are some of the tax benefits possible from improved real estate? Is vacation or recreational land a good investment? And finally, are small apartment units a good investment?

The college's Real Estate Education Advisory Committee. under the direction of Campbell realtor Holly Vollenweider, is sponsoring the seminar. The committee, composed of area realtors and real estate specialists in addition to some staff members of the college, meets once a month to map out plans to enhance the educational excellence of the real estate industry.

Registration for the course will be on a first-come, first-served basis. Interested participants should register in the Office of Community Services, located at 44 E. Latimer Ave., Campbell, room L-26. Further information may be obtained from that office by calling 379-1733, ext. 58.

Campbell woman appointed to attend White House food conference in December

"Would you like to tell the President how you feel about the Food Stamp Program?"

If you would like to voice your opinion to the President on matters of this nature call or write to Louisa Whittaker, P. O. Box 992, Campbell, 95008, 299-3721 or 299-3748.

Mrs. Whittaker, a Campbell resident who resides at 1315 Eden Ave., has been named to participate in a White House Conference on Food, Nutrition, and Health. She is one of 300 panel members who will attend the conference in Washington, D.C. December 2, 3 and 4.

In line with her new job she has already attended a meeting at which the moon astronauts were present. A sociology major, she explains that her new job is not only to "sell" the food stamps but to help recipients with money management, food planning and other relative programs. Her work is closely tied in with the Dept. of Agriculture.

The panel to which she has been assigned is Community Nutrition and Education in Urban and Rural Areas. In order for the meetings in Washington to be successful, it is essential that Bay Area residents contact her. Without information from the people in this area, Mrs. Whittaker feels she will be at a disadvantage in her attempt to make a meaningful presentation to the White House. As she said, "It would be like having a shotgun but no shells".

Her panel will have a preliminary meeting in Washington on October 16, to review suggestions from people across the country. They will then reconvene on the above date to present their recommendations to the President with the possibility that they may become part of future federal laws on the subject.

INTERESTING CAREER--Mrs. Louisa Whittaker, left, of 1315 Eden Ave., has just been named to participate in a White House Conference on Food, Nutrition and Health which will discuss the Food Stamp Program and related subjects.

PROMOTED

Campbell resident E. Chester Wallace, of 1180 Steinway Ave., has been promoted to head of the consumer installment lending department at Bank of America's Palo Alto Branch.

He succeeds J. S. Taylor, who recently advanced to the San Jose Main Office.

Wallace held lending responsibilities in the Second and San Carlos Branch in San Jose before his promotion.

Wallace and his wife, Julie, are parents of an infant daughter, Michele Marie.

Holland exchange student living in Campbell for year

Each year hundreds of teen-agers all over the world apply for acceptance in the various student exchange programs now operating between countries. Relatively few in number are given the opportunity to spend a year of high school studying in a foreign country. Selma Sindram is one of the fortunate few.

Selma is a lovely girl from Oosterbeek in the east-central part of Holland. She arrived in the United States in July, as a member of the International Christian Youth Exchange Program; and will spend her senior year studying at Campbell High School.

Selma was born and raised in Curacao, in the West Indies, where her father worked for the government as a chemical pathologist. For the past five years the family has lived in Oosterbeek, near Arnhem, the capital of the Province of Gelderland. Sindram is now chemical pathologist for an Arnhem hospital.

Looking for an exchange in friendships and ideas, Selma brings to the United States a happy personality, and a wealth of knowledge from her experiences in Europe and the West Indies. The differences of the cultures that she has grown up in, has enabled her to learn the Dutch, English, German and French languages; and to develop an awareness of people and events broader than most high school students experience.

When the opportunity was presented her to join the International Christian Youth Exchange Program, Selma saw the chance to satisfy these interests, as well as to study her English firsthand. She applied, and won the chance to come to the United States, and live with the Art Ring family of 207 N. Victor Ave., Campbell.

Ring is a science consultant for the Campbell Union School District; and he and Josephine are members of the First United Methodist Church of Campbell, which sponsors this particular student exchange.

In Holland, Selma left two sisters and two brothers; she now has an American "sister and brother" in Joanne Ring who will be attending Campbell High with Selma, and Eddie who will be in the seventh grade.

Selma has a love for the outdoors, and has already explored our beaches and forests on camping experiences this summer. She is here to meet us, and already has found many friends in Campbell.

AN INTERVIEW WITH SELMA SINDRAM

Where in Holland are you from?

Oosterbeek, a town just outside of Arnhem, which is the capital of the province of Gelderland, the east-central part of Holland, and which is located on the Rhine River.

Have you lived there all of your life?

No. I was born and raised in Curacao, in the West Indies. I have lived in Holland, in Oosterbeek, for the last five years.

Do you have any brothers and sisters?

Yes. I have two brothers, ages 21 and 12, and two sisters, aged 24 and 15.

Do they all live at home?

No. My oldest brother is studying medicine in Groningen University in northern Holland. My oldest sister and her husband are also studying medicine at Nijmegen University and still live at our home with their small son, Steven. My father is a chemical pathologist at an Arnhem hospital.

When did you arrive in the United States?

I arrived in Collegeville, Pa. on the 15th of July. While we were there the I.C.Y.E. group, 284 students from all over the world, went through an orientation program to become a bit more acquainted with the customs of the U. S. I arrived in Campbell on the 18th of July.

How old are you?

I will be 18 on December 25.

Where will you attend school while you're here?

At Campbell High School.

How long will you be here?

For one year.

What languages do you speak?

Dutch, English, German and French.

How did you learn these languages?

They were required in our high school

How did you become interested in the I.C.Y.E. program?

I wasn't sure what I would like to do after graduating from high school, so I thought the opportunity to go abroad would give me a chance to study the English language and to know the American people. I am very interested in history, geography, languages and people.

What was school like in Holland?

We go to lower school (U.S. grades one through six) for six years and then to the higher school for five years. At the end of high school all students have a written and oral examination to graduate. For the oral exam we spend about 20 minutes in each of the six subjects. The written exams took about 2½ to 3 hours for each subject.

What do most people ask you about your country?

Most people ask about the boy holding his finger in the dike, if we still wear wooden shoes, if everybody has a windmill in his garden and if we all wear costumes. The answer is "no" to all of these questions.

EVENING MASS

An evening Mass has been added to the daily Mass schedule held at St. Lucy's. Starting this week, in addition to the 7 and 8 a.m. daily Mass, Mass will also be celebrated at 5:15 p.m. This is part of the renewal program now being carried out by the parish.

PLENTY OF DANCE ROOM--Two of the dancers in "Mame" have found that the empty Wrinkled Prune Annex on North Central Ave. has afforded lots of space for their dance numbers, for the production which has been rehearsing in the former Sunsweet Prune warehouse.

will have five stages to feature continuous entertainment for the patrons.

Becker is no stranger to the entertainment world, as he was on the board of directors for the San Jose Light Opera for five years, and did many shows with them. "Mame" will be his first production with the Saratoga Drama Group, which has found the empty warehouse floor space ideal for practice and tryouts.

Other dreams for the "Wrinkled Prune Annex" include a three-decker French restaurant, a 24-hour coffee house, a theater for off-Broadway musicals and other entertainment centers all planned so that an evening can be spent in the same location without driving around the block.

Mame will open on Oct. 10 for all weekends and two Wednesdays, Oct. 22 and 29 through Nov. 1 at The Saratoga Civic Theater in Saratoga.

Ticket information may be had by calling 356-3853 or 252-1305.

A Campbell resident, Paul Gurev is director of the production and is well known for his direction of "Paint Your Wagon" and "Kiss Me, Kate", recent sell-out productions of the Saratoga group.

A mother and son team star as "Mame" and "Patrick". Lila Lloyd is well known from San Francisco to Santa Cruz for her theatre and night club work. She was a featured singer with the Ink Spots at Brookdale Lodge some years ago.

Lila is an attractive, vivacious and versatile woman and the mother of nine children, one of whom is young Patrick. Bunky is quite a young man for his ten years. He has been back stage and on stage all of his life. He had the title roll in "Oliver" for San Jose Light Opera and recently finished playing Snoopy in "Charlie Brown", at City College.

NEW OWNER --- Stanley Becker is the new owner of the former Sunsweet Prune warehouse on North Central Ave. which he has renamed "The Wrinkled Prune Annex". Becker plans on opening his first entertainment enterprise to be named "The Prune Pit" in about two months.

SHAME ON YOU--Stanley Becker as Babcock in "Mame" gives Mame, played by Lila Lloyd, the dickens for the way she is raising her son Bunky played by Mrs. Lloyd's real life son, Patrick Lloyd. The trio are members of the Saratoga Drama group which has been rehearsing in the Wrinkled Prune Annex for their Oct. 10 opening in the Saratoga Civic Auditorium. The scene was shot during rehearsal in the empty warehouse on Central Ave. which Becker plans to turn into a theater-restaurant-entertainment center.

For President Nixon

A Campbell artist, Roy Doerr, now has a picture reportedly hanging in the White House that he painted of the courtyard of President Richard Nixon's "White House West", in San Clemente.

The 24 x 36 oil painting, showing the courtyard and fountain and featuring Nixon's study in the upper right, as though seen from a doorway, was painted from a photo taken in 1926, right after the residence was built for Henry Hamilton Cotton.

The painting was done in May, 1969 and was presented by Fred Dival to President and Mrs. Nixon August 27 when the presidential family were vacationing in San Clemente. Dival recommended Doerr to do the painting.

Doerr, an experienced commercial artist, in addition to the fine arts, is associated with A. Rea in the Art Service studio located at 567 E. Campbell Ave. He has won several prizes in the artistic world, among them being an honorable mention in the nationwide pictorial America contest conducted by Hartford Insurance Company of Connecticut.

He has attended several art schools including the University of Southern California art center, Meinzingers of Detroit and Famous Artist School in Westport, Conn.

Doerr, who has been freelancing in the commercial art field, will be associated with Rea in the opening of a new art school Oct. 15 in the Art Mart on Hacienda Ave. During the month of October, Doerr has a one-man show in the San Clemente art gallery.

ON CAPITOL HILL

with "Charlie" Gubser

For some time I have felt that military men have been unfairly maligned and frequently blamed for the faults of their civilian superiors. I recognize that the man in uniform often deserves criticism and have frequently given it myself. But during the debate on the recent military procurement bill, I felt it was necessary to set the record straight. The following excerpts from my speech in the House were the result:

"Today we are engaged in an unpopular war, to which civilians have decided they will not let military men win.

"Americans are disgusted--and rightly so--and their disgust has been fanned into a revulsion against anything military. Demagogs who make a profession of sniffing political winds and adjusting their principles accordingly were quick to follow instead of lead. Because negative criticism is more spectacular than the constructive variety, their efforts were rewarded with headlines and prominent spots on television.

"Let us be honest in criticizing the military. They are human. They make mistakes. They should be criticized, and they should correct their mistakes. But the mistakes of civilians should not be included in a blanket smear of a great group of people who are prepared to sacrifice their lives in the defense of freedom.

"Did a military man make the TFX decision? ... Did a military man decide to commit combat troops in Southeast Asia? ... Did a military man decide not to close the port of Haiphong? ... Did a military man conceive the revolutionary C-5A contract? ... Was it a military man who promoted the multi-billion dollar 'McNamara line' along the DMZ in Vietnam, or was it the Secretary's 'whizz kids' who promoted the fiasco against military advice?

"So let us blame military men when they deserve it, but do not ask them to take the rap for purely civilian mistakes.

"It should be known that military men are today rendering military support for treaty commitments that were ratified by the civilians of the U.S. Senate. Let me list a few of them:

"The Charter of the United Nations, signed in 1945; the Inter-American Treaty (the Rio Pact), signed in 1941; the general treaty between the United States and Panama, signed in 1936; the NATO Treaty of 1949; the Southeast Asia Collective Defense Treaty (SEATO), signed in 1954; the security treaty between Australia, New Zealand, and the United States (the Anzus Pact of 1951); the treaty of mutual cooperation between the United States and Japan in 1960; the mutual defense treaty between the United States and the Republic of China, signed in 1954; and the mutual defense treaty between the United States and the Republic of Korea in 1953.

"Military men today are committed to defend the commitments made in these treaties which were ratified by the civilians of the U. S. Senate. So when we are criticizing, let us direct it to all who deserve it". And there should be no senatorial immunity!

Car thieves take valuables

YMCA appoints new director

Howard L. Brooks, Jr., 28, has been appointed Program Director of the Southwest YMCA Branch to help Campbell young people attending the branch in their Gra-Y, Jr. Hi-Y and high school age group activities.

Brooks, a native of Saratoga and graduate of Los Gatos High School, was named to the post by L. A. "Chris" Christensen, branch executive director.

The June graduate of George Williams College near Chicago, who holds a Bachelor's degree in group work and recreation, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Brooks, 19370 Saratoga - Los Gatos Road. Brooks, Jr., and his wife Kathy are looking for a home in this area now.

Brooks' first experience with the YMCA was when he attended "Y" camp at the age of six. He has been involved with the YMCA ever since as a member, volunteer leader, part-time worker and, now, as a member of the professional staff.

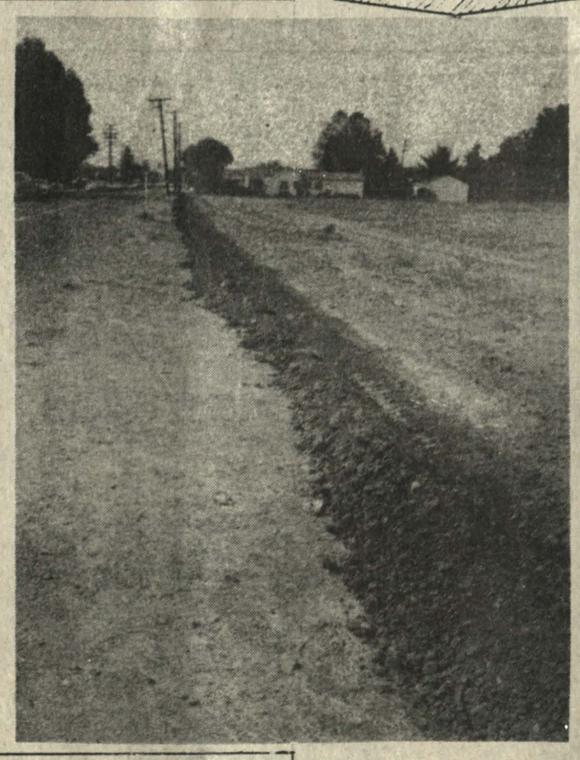
Southwest Branch serves youth in the Los Gatos, Saratoga, Cambrian and West San Jose areas, as well as Campbell.

Brooks' addition to the Southwest branch brings the administrative and program staff level for the Metropolitan YMCA of San Jose and the Santa Clara Valley to 17, compared to the nine before the Metro re-organization in 1963.

PROSTHETIC

Veterans Administration provided prosthetic devices to 407,000 veterans in 1967.

BEFORE---West Valley College students took advantage of the former Gomes property on the north side of Latimer Ave. between First and Third, when college opened and used it as an instant parking space.



AFTER---A bulldozer effectively cut a ditch along the north side of Latimer Ave. Saturday morning, and on Monday the West Valley College students found that their newly-found parking place, as seen above, was no longer available, and Latimer Ave. looked like this.

I BET YOU DIDN'T KNOW

Did you know that very few men over 6-feet tall ever become great golfers? ...If you name all the best pro golfers of recent times, you'll find that almost all of them are 6-feet or less ...Arnie Palmer, for instance, is 5-10½ ...Gary Player 5-7 ... Gene Littler is 5-9 ...Jack Nicklaus is an even 6-feet ...Billy Casper is 5-11 ... Sammy Snead 5-11 ...Ben Hogan is only 5-9 ...It's rare indeed when you find a great golfer much over 6-feet.

How fast could you drive a car in the old days? ... Well, the first auto race in the United States was held in Chicago on Thanksgiving Day, 1895 ...It was a 50-mile race, and the winning car, driven by famous inventor Frank Duryea traveled at the average speed of -- believe it or not -- 7½ miles per hour!
